

CANVAS CONNECT JANUARY 2024

MESSAGE BY THE FOUNDER

Ms. Hema Harchandani
Managing Director
Canvas International School

Dear Parents and Partners,

As we embark on a promising new academic year, I am honored to share insights into the foundational pillars of our educational philosophy: Cultivating 21st Century Skills and embracing Modern Parenting Strategies, both instrumental in shaping the path of our Canvins towards leadership.

In today's dynamic landscape, it is paramount that our students not only acquire traditional academic knowledge but also refine skills essential for success in the 21st century. These skills encompass critical thinking, creativity, collaboration, communication, and adaptability. Our unwavering commitment is to establish an environment that not only underscores academic excellence but also encourages the development of these crucial skills. Through innovative teaching methods, project-based learning, and real-world applications, we aspire to equip our Canvins with the necessary tools to navigate the complexities of the modern world.

Equally pivotal is our role as parents in the holistic development of our students. In an era where family dynamics are evolving, and the younger generation faces unique challenges, adopting modern parenting strategies becomes paramount.

Our approach involves fostering open communication, active parental involvement, and a profound understanding of the individual needs and strengths of each child. Through collaboration with parents, our aim is to create a supportive community that empowers both children and their families. Workshops, resources, and continuous dialogue form the cornerstone of our efforts to provide parents with the tools necessary to navigate the intricacies of parenting in the 21st century.

As we embark on this collective journey, let us embrace the shared responsibility of nurturing 21st-century skills in our children and implementing effective parenting strategies. Together, we can cultivate an environment where our Canvins not only excel academically but also evolve into well-rounded individuals ready to face challenges and seize opportunities in the future.

With unwavering enthusiasm and commitment.

ACTIVITY HELD

We Mean To Clean

To commemorate Gandhi Jayanti through a meaningful cleanliness drive children of Canvas International School celebrated 'We Mean To Clean' Season 4 at Railway Station. This initiative, aptly named "Celebrated We Mean to Clean," aimed to not only honor the ideals of Mahatma Gandhi but also contribute to the betterment of our community.

As part of the educational component, informative sessions were conducted, focusing on Mahatma Gandhi's principles, especially his emphasis on cleanliness and sanitation. Our little canvins actively participated in discussions, showcasing their understanding of the importance of maintaining a clean and hygienic environment.

Involving school kids in such activities not only contributes to the immediate goal of cleanliness but also instills a sense of responsibility and civic duty in them.

Global Hand Washing day

In a spirited and educational event, Canvas International pre school recently commemorated Global Handwashing Day, reinforcing the importance of hygiene habits among the youngest members of our community.

The Global Handwashing Day celebration at Canvas International pre school was a resounding success, fostering a fun and educational environment. By instilling good handwashing habits early on, the preschool is contributing to the well-being of its students and promoting a healthy learning atmosphere.

Dandiya Celebration

Little Feet, Big Beats:

A Heartwarming Dandiya Night at Canvas International pre school

Canvas International school courtyard echoed with laughter, music, and the rhythmic beats of joy as our kids came together to celebrate the spirit of Navratri. Our young canvins showcased not only their enthusiasm for the festival but also their graceful moves as they twirled and danced to the lively Dandiya beats. It was heartening to see the cultural pride reflected in their traditional attire and spirited dance performances.

The Dandiya celebration wasn't just about the children; it was a family affair. Parents, adorned in traditional attire, joined the festivities with equal zeal. The shared smiles, laughter, and proud glances exchanged between parents and their little performers added an extra layer of warmth to the evening. The celebration became not just a dance event but a cultural exploration for our young minds.

The celebration wasn't just about ghosts and goblins; it was about fostering a sense of community, creativity, and the magic that happens when little hearts embrace the spirit of Halloween.

Sports Day

Amidst cheers, laughter, and the pitter-patter of tiny feet, Canvas International pre school transformed into a mini sports arena, setting the stage for our youngest athletes to shine in a day filled with fun, camaraderie, and a dash of competitive spirit.

From the three-legged race to the adorable sack race, each child showcased not just their physical prowess but also their infectious enthusiasm. Sports Day at Canvas International pre school wasn't just about winning or losing; it was about fostering a love for physical activity, teamwork, and the sheer joy that comes from running, jumping, and playing with friends.

Digital Detox

In our tech-driven world, even the tiniest fingers reach for screens. While digital tools offer valuable learning opportunities, for pre-primary kids, real-world play and connection reign supreme. That's where the magic of a digital detox comes in!

Why Detox?

Think of a digital detox as a refreshing break, not a ban. It's a chance for your child to:

Spark imagination: Unstructured playtime fuels creativity and problem-solving. Building forts, making art, and playing pretend become vibrant adventures.

Connect with family: Face-to-face interactions strengthen bonds and nurture emotional intelligence. Read stories, sing songs, and build towers as a team!

Embrace movement: Outdoor play lets kids explore, climb, and run, boosting physical development and coordination. Let the park, backyard, or even your living room become their jungle gym.

Sharpen senses: Screens flood the senses. A detox allows children to fully hear birdsong, feel the texture of leaves, and smell the rain. It's a sensory feast!

Develop focus: Constant digital stimulation can shorten attention spans. Detoxing allows kids to truly engage in activities, fostering deeper and more meaningful experiences.

Making it Fun:

Forget restrictive routines. A digital detox should be exciting, not forced! Here are some tips:

Designate "tech-free zones": Bedrooms, mealtimes, and playtime can be screen-free havens. Invest in board games, puzzles, and art supplies to fill the void.

Lead by example: Put down your phone when your child wants to play. Show them you value their company over your digital world.

Turn everyday moments into adventures: Grocery shopping becomes a treasure hunt, a walk becomes a nature safari. Help them see the magic in the ordinary.

Plan creative outings: Visit museums, libraries, or animal sanctuaries. Spark their curiosity about the world beyond the screen.

Embrace analog downtime: Read together, build with blocks, sing silly songs. Rediscover the simple joys of unplugged connection.
